

KDYS Youth Justice Worker Job Description

Works With:	KDYS KEY Service – A Divisional Youth Diversion Project.
Reports To:	KDYS Co-Ordinator with responsibility for Youth Justice
Location:	Kerry Divisional Area

The post holder is an exceptional individual who endeavours to make a difference in the lives of young people and their families by promoting a culture of integrity and compliance within KDYS, and by operating in line with our organisational mission, vision and values: Young Person Centred, Rights Based, Empowering, Inclusive, Respectful, and Non-judgemental.

About KDYS Youth Justice Work

KDYS has a long history of developing innovative responses to the needs of young people that enhance their lives, their families, and the wider community. In partnership with the Kerry Gardaí, the service response is based on clear evidence of need informed by Garda crime statistics. The net result is that young people who are most in need of a service will get that service. In 2019, KDYS further developed the KEY Service to extend to a limited delivery to children aged 8-11 years old.

This project is co-funded by the Government of Ireland and the European Union.

Job Summary

Work with young people, their families, agencies, and the community in the Kerry Division to develop and deliver suitable interventions and supports to young people in the area as per the funding criteria. The project is funded by the Department of Justice and Equality and the European Social Fund.
